PROFILE

My career and allocated responsibilities in various branches of businesses has led me to a management position in the renewable energy sector. Quick learning skills, flexibility in adapting to new environments, and excellent communication and social skills has allowed me to find my own place in a lead role amongst a team of developers.

Previous jobs gave me experience in forward-planning, methodical administration to meet deadlines, leadership methods, staff motivation techniques and involvement in both decision-making and target-setting activities, clarity in communication, and easy personal inter-relations. I am highly self-motivated and focused on achieving goals.
